

Dup

FORGET YOU?

Song

Arranged by

S.G. SMITH and FRANK EBORALL

Price 50 cents

*Published by S.G. SMITH and FRANK EBORALL
TORONTO*

"Forget You?"

Words and Music by Virginia Roadhouse
Andante

Arranged by
S. G. Smith and Frank Eborall

PIANO

1. For-get you? how could I for-get you When each hour I live but for thee For-
2. You told me that I would for-get you When some one had tak-en your place You get you? if I should for-get you The world would mean nothing to me Its knew not the depth of de-votion The love that I can-not ef-face The springtime, its sun-shine, its flowers Would hold naught of sweetness to me. If dawn and the noon-tide the evening Hold noth-ing to glad-den my heart. Their

I had for-got-ten the hours I've spent my dar-ling with thee.
beau-ty, their light and their shad-ow Speaks but the words far a - part.

CHORUS

For - get you? the words have no mean - ing Be - cause I could nev-er for - get When the world, all the world has for - get - ten I will slum-ber and dream of you yet.

E. G. SMITH F. EBORALL

Songs and Other Compositions

BY THE SAME AUTHORS AND PUBLISHERS

Will the King be Proud of Canada ?

Patriotic Song (March)

The Girl Who is Yours While You are Away.

Canadian Recruiting Patriotic Song
(Band Parts obtainable)

Will My Boy Come Back ?

This Song appeals to Mothers (Waltz)

Forget You.

Very pretty melody—A great favorite.

My Mother's Kiss was Sweeter Than Them All.

Don't fail to have this in your home (Song)

Our Own Canadian Girl.

This little Song is destined to become popular.

My Dream.

One of our best efforts in Song.

If We But Knew.

A Sacred Solo—Well received.
(For medium voice)

His Grace is Sufficient for Thee.

A very simple melody. Each verse has a different accompaniment (Sacred) Soldier's Story or Why I am Wearing the Khaki.

One of the greatest Recitations of the day
(Poem)

The Life of a Simple Kind.

If we lived as this Poem suggests it would be a beautiful world (Poem)

My Mother.

Very pretty little Story—Should be set to music
(Poem)

Our Daughter.

For those whose daughters have left them
(Poem)

Medley Waltzes.

A collection of Popular Choruses set to Waltz time.

Any of these numbers can be obtained of

SMITH AND EBORALL

36 SHUTER STREET

TORONTO